

Sample Declaration

On 1 July 2003 @ 1245, I was interviewed in-person by Ms. Jean Cook and Mr. John Hays. I am a GS-13, assigned to PMA 277, Commander, Naval Air Systems Command, Washington D.C., Tel: (301) 757-4430; DSN 757; E-mail collinspj@navair.navy.mil.

Pursuant to 28 USC § 1746, I, Paula Collins, declare as follows:

Sylvia Chase, Marie Powell and I attended the SPAWAR C4I Summit in San Diego on 1-5 March 2003. We flew out on the 1st, attended the Summit the 2nd-4th, and flew back on Friday morning, the 5th.

I had lunch with Ms. Chase and a friend of hers, Roy Martin, on Wednesday around 1200 at the Rio Grande restaurant. We all had a margarita with lunch. I needed to leave early to make some phone calls before the Wednesday afternoon Network User's session began, so I asked Mr. Papas if he could give me a ride back to the conference. I returned to the conference with Mr. Papas and Ms. Armandina Sanchez. I did not see Sylvia on Wednesday during the conference. I thought she was scheduled to sit on the panel, but she did not. I didn't see her on Thursday at the conference either, but we were in different working groups.

I was worried about her so I called her room, but she did not answer the phone. Ms. Powell and I left San Diego early Friday morning and returned to Dulles Airport. We thought Ms. Chase must have changed her flight for some reason, but we were unable to get in touch with her. When I saw her at work the next week, I asked her where she was. She told me she had gotten really sick at the restaurant and was unable to attend the conference Wednesday afternoon and Thursday.

I was advised of the applicable provisions of the Privacy Act, and signed/declined to sign a Privacy Act statement.

I declare under penalty of perjury, 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on 2 July 2003.

//s// Paula Collins
Ms. Paula Collins